Sleep on it for £30,000

SWEET dreams are practically guaranteed in the egg-shaped Lomme bed, writes Ron McManus.

The futuristic design cocoons you in womb-like security, and it's packed with technology to help lull you into the land of nod, including soft pastel-coloured mood lighting and relaxing sound effects like gentle waterfalls and waves. There's even a massager in the mattress.

The German-made Lomme — Light Over Matter Mind Evolution — is being billed not just as a bed, but as a sleep system.

The price might keep you awake, though — it's £30,000.
