

■ Kitchen

The genius of induction hobs is that they heat up and cool down quickly, so less energy is wasted. DeDietrich's latest range of kitchen gadgets includes the super-fast induction wok and a self-cleaning cooker, which uses Pyroclean technology to leave it sparkling at the touch of a button.
DeDietrich Domino Induction Wok Hob, £1,100; www.dedietrich.co.uk

How many times a day do you need boiling water? A Zip HydroTap produces 100C H₂O (not just very hot water) on tap, instantly. Dump the kettle, drink more tea, go to the loo more often.

From £1,175; www.zipheaters.co.uk

■ Bedroom

The Lomme (Light Over Matter Mind Evolution) bed, which won the International Red Dot Design Award earlier this year, is described as 'a piece of furniture, a work of art and the most relaxing, protected and natural place to restore energy levels'. The organically shaped bed includes light therapy, an in-built massage system and soothing sounds to send you off to the land of nod. Although you may need a lie down when you see the price...

From £30,000; www.lomme.com